Troy Chandler is a partner in the Houston firm of Chandler McNulty. He is a 1998 Magna Cum Laude graduate of the University of Houston Law Center. After law school, Troy joined the Baron & Budd law firm, where he accumulated $30 million in verdicts in his first two years as a lawyer. Since then, he has focused his practice in 3 types of cases, Big Rig truck wrecks, mesothelioma, and crime victim representation. His most recent verdict was for $30 million against FedExFreight, where he and his partner Devin McNulty represented two adult children for the loss of their father, an 18-wheeler driver who was killed in a head in collision w a FedEx truck. Troy and his wife have 3 boys and are now thoroughly enjoying being empty-nesters. When not practicing law you can find him and his wife in the mountains of Utah.
